

Deregistration of Technip's shares with the securities and exchange commission

November 16, 2007

Paris, November 16, 2007

As announced on July 25, 2007, Technip applied for a voluntary delisting of its American Depositary Shares from the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and deregistration with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

The delisting from the NYSE became effective as of August 16, 2007 and the deregistration became effective as of November 14, 2007.

Technip intends to maintain its American Depositary Receipt (ADR) program to enable investors to retain their ADRs and permit trading on the U.S. over-the-counter (OTC) market.

Technip will continue to publish its financial reports, statements and press releases in English as well as information for shareholders and investors on its website (www.technip.com) pursuant to section 12g3-2(b) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act.
